APPOMATTOX COUNTY LIBRARY NEWS

At a time when nothing America does seems right in the eyes of the rest of the world and even to some Americans, now more than ever we need to listen to someone who is not afraid to stand up and remind us what's right with America and what we as a people can do to make her even better. Such a person is Dale Evans Rogers, who in her new book, Let Freedom Ring, tells us in no uncertain terms why she loves America. She says and I quote, "Call me a flag-waver if you will, I love that flag and all it stands for. Call me a reactionary--yes I am reacting strongly and I'm ready to be stronger. I am calling on those of you who love God and your country to act -- to make this nation one under Him.--It is in God that the strength, beauty and hope of these United States of America lie." Other books in the library by this author are; The Woman at the Well; Angel Unaware; My Spiritual Dairy; To My Son; Salute to Sandy; Dearest Debbie.

There is a new book in the library by Frank Slaughter called "The Stonewall Brigade." Men will like it as it is mostly about the battles won by Stonewall Jackson during the Civil War. He was a firm believer in prayer and always prayed for victory and always thanked the Lord when he won. Had he not been killed the north might have had a much harder time winning the war. Several books on Jackson are in the library--one of which is very good. It is entitled, "They Called Him Stonewall", and is by Burke Davis. Also very interesting is one called "I Rode With Stonew
